Elevate your Leadership journey

ICAP Leadership Xpedition® is a 4-day wilderness leadership program that prepares finance professionals for strategic leadership positions by elevating their leadership mindset and enabling growth by overcoming self-imposed limitations. It is based on the time tested, decade strong methodology of expedition leadership founded by Training Impact in Pakistan.

What will you get?

- » A customized learning experience based on a pre-assessment of your unique needs and challenges
- » Wilderness setting- Xpedition® styled program
- » Real life leadership challenges that focus on the important strategic thinking as leaders
- » A chance to analyze leadership strengths and weaknesses through actual leadership roles in real-life projects in the wilderness
- » Learning that lasts: extensive debrief and review sessions that are deep, candid and personalized
- » Strong workplace relevance in line with organization vision and culture
- » Developing a resilient mindset: learning to lead in stressful and challenging circumstances
- » Bonus: A post program assessment of your unique leadership style and personalized recommendations, based on the 7 dimensions of leadership model ® (Optional)

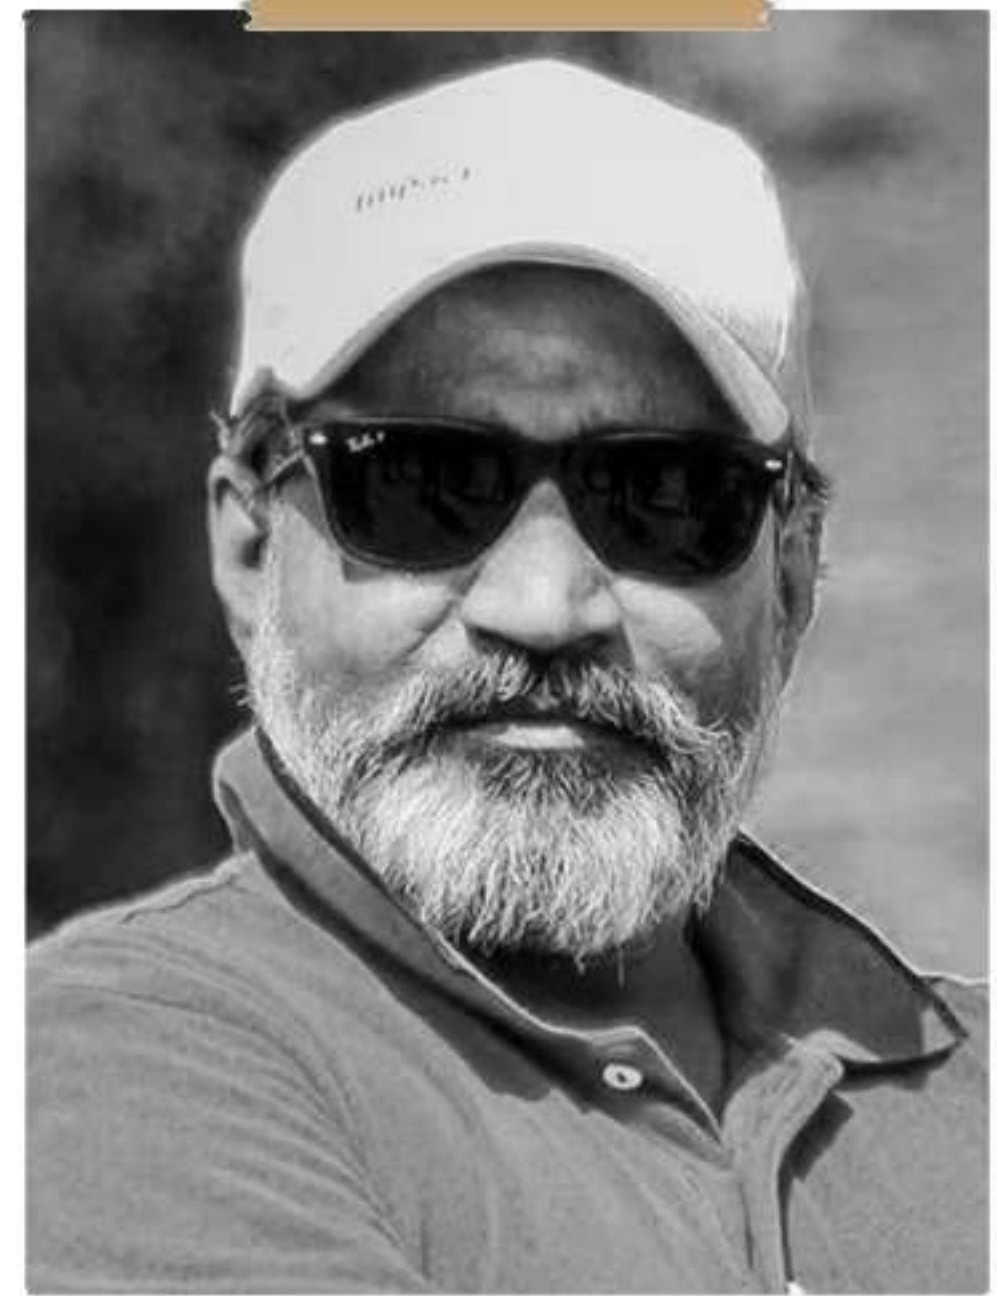

Muhammad Ali
Director Finance, K-Electric

The best moment in the program was when I was given a new team and was put in a situation where I had to solve a complex problem working with them. That was a turning point for me in this program where I learned a lot about myself and my ability to manage team.

Trainers

Omer Farooq

Chief Financial Officer, Jubilee Life

I have Attended many Training Programs but this one with Training Impact was entirely Different. All the activities conducted by the Team were highly relevant to Real- Life scenarios. As a professional I believe that the relevance of this program to professional life should be experienced by everyone, Senior Managers, C-suite or even young leaders starting their careers
